SHENG TAI INTERNATIONAL BERBUKA PUASA WITH 200 UNDERPRIVILEGED CHILDREN AND SENIOR CITIZENS

MELAKA, 27 MAY 2019 – Sheng Tai International Sdn Bhd (Sheng Tai International), an award-winning developer who specialises in property tourism, spearheaded a fun-filled evening for some special guests at the soon-to-open Ames Hotel, a new 5-star hotel in Melaka.

The special outing saw the participation of two hundred (200) underprivileged children and senior citizens aged between two (2) to eighty seven (87) and their caretakers from Pusat Jagaan Kanak-Kanak Harapan; Pusat Penjagaan Kanak-Kanak Terencat Akal; Pertubuhan Kebajikan Villa Harapan; Rumah Budak Laki-laki Tun Abdul Aziz; Rumah Seri Kenangan; Sekolah Tahfiz As Solihin; Sekolah Kebangsaan Tun Razak; Sekolah Kebangsaan Tambak Paya; Rumah Anak Yatim Durian Daun and Sekolah Kebangsaan Bukit Katil.

Present at the event were Dato' Leong Sir Ley of Sheng Tai International; Mr. Collin Tan, Director of Sheng Tai International as well as Mr. Nicholas S.C. Leong, Sales and Marketing Director for Sheng Tai International; Datuk Raja Shahrom Raja Abdullah, Ketua Polis Melaka, IPD; Datuk Wira Radhuana Salleh, Chief Executive Officer of Yayasan Toh Puan Zarina, Melaka; Datuk John Lee Kim Tuan, Founder/ Executive Chairman Global Asset Capital; Prof Datuk Wira Dr Hj Mohd Jamil Mukmin, Chairman Mini Malaysia and En Abdul Halim Ismail, Chief Executive Officer of Zakat Melaka.

Dato' Leong Sir Ley, Founder and Chairman of Sheng Tai International, said, "Since the beginning of Sheng Tai International, we have always been upholding the company's legacy of practising compassion and love for the deserving community, especially so during the festive period. We are always committed to giving back to the community where we operate in."

"This year is no different, as we continued to play host to over 200 special guests from all over Melaka. We were delighted to be able to spend some time with them and sincerely hope that this will make their forthcoming Hari Raya more meaningful. We want them to know that they are not alone, and as a responsible corporate citizen, we will always be sensitive to their needs and listen to the pulse of the grassroots community."

The children and senior citizens were given a simple and exclusive tour at selected places of Ames Hotel upon their arrival. All guests were treated to Ames Hotel's 'Gemersik Selera Kampung', a sumptuous Buka Puasa featuring a delectable spread of mouth-watering dishes and all-time favourites which is delivered to perfection by international chef and experienced sous-chefs with international exposure, at the hotel's luxury Grand Ballroom.

Apart from the buffet spread, the guests also enjoyed the Ghazal performance by Jazz Entertainment. Each beneficiary also received a goodie bag of stationery, food items, corporate gifts, daily amenities, cookies and 'duit raya' all totalling RM50,000.

“Moving forward, Sheng Tai International will continue to embrace innovative ideas and industry best practices in order to deliver excellence to our investors, property buyers and community where we operate in. We are currently expanding our globalisation plan, with customers in the form of tourists and investors coming to Malaysia from all over the world via our very well-established property tourism efforts.”

“We are also building The Sail mixed development in Melaka that has recently won several best iconic development awards, and recognised by the Chinese government as a key strategic development along the One Belt One Road route. Consequently, Sheng Tai International was invited to the Second Belt and Road Forum for International Cooperation for a signing ceremony with a major state-owned company. In addition, Pirogov Russian National Research Medical University in Moscow, Russia has invited us for an exclusive study tour at their campus recently and also expressed their interest to set up their overseas branch in The Sail,” she concluded.
